THE EAST ALABAMA BREAST CANCER FOUNDATION PRESENTS
AUCTION EVENT FOR THE 25th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

AUBURN, ALA. – The East Alabama Breast Cancer Foundation is hosting an auction event in celebration of its 25th anniversary. The auction will be held at the Jane Doe Breast Cancer Center on Nov. 1, 2008, in the John F. Upman Lecture Hall at 6 p.m.

The nonprofit organization was founded by the Doe family after their mother, Jane, passed away from breast cancer in March 1982. The goal of the EABCF is to raise awareness about breast cancer and money for research.

The guest speaker of the night will be local news anchor Liz Hurley who was diagnosed with breast cancer in 1994. Hurley will give a speech honoring local breast cancer survivors and auction off the first item. The board of the organization will also help in auctioning off items including a vintage wig worn by famous actress Holly Tate, who died of breast cancer in 1946.

Guests are asked to bring their invitations to the auction. To find out information about donations or items to be included in the auction, please call (334) 546-9872 or visit our website at www.eastalabamabcf.org.
